(a) Any complainant, that is any person who believes himself aggrieved by a determination as to eligibility, the amount of payment, the failure of the public entity to provide comparable permanent or adequate temporary replacement housing or the public entity's property management practices may, at his election, have his claim reviewed and reconsidered by the head of the public entity or an authorized designee (other than the person who made the determination in question) in accordance with the procedures set forth in this article, as supplemented by the procedures the public entity shall establish for such review and reconsideration.

B. The factual and legal basis upon which the decision rests, including any pertinent explanation or rationale.

C. A statement to the claimant of the right to further administrative appeal, if the public entity has such an appeal structure, or if not, a statement to the claimant that administrative remedies have been exhausted and judicial review may be sought.

2. The determination shall be in writing with a copy provided to the claimant.

(d) Time Limits.

1. The public entity shall issue its determination of review as soon as possible but no later than 6 weeks from receipt of the last material submitted for consideration by the claimant of the date of the hearing, whichever is later.
