

GOVERNANCE STANDARDS

The Board also has major commitments to parents/guardians, all members of the community, employees, the state of California, laws pertaining to public education, and established policies of the county office. To maximize Board effectiveness and public confidence in district governance, County Board members are expected to govern responsibly and hold themselves to the highest standards of ethical conduct.

4. Act with dignity, and understand the implications of demeanor and behavior.
5. Keep confidential matters confidential.
6. Participate in professional development and commit the time and energy necessary to be an informed and effective leader.
7. Understand the distinctions between the County Board, County Superintendent and staff roles, and refrain from performing management functions that are the responsibility of the County Superintendent and staff.
8. Understand that authority rests with the County Board as a whole and not with individual County Board members.
